Drive Them Off The Highways

Some time ago it was predicted that with the advent of the warm summer weather which tempts people to enjoy outdoor life as much as possible the newspapers would carry stories of automobile accidents, recording the deaths of some and injury of a great many more.

The prediction is a safe one and is already being amply fulfilled. Even before the hottest summer months had arrived a number of smashups with their accompanying fatalities and injuries were reported in screaming headlines in the daily press.

Eye witnesses of one accident in one of the prairie provinces report that a couple of men were driving a brand new car along a crowded highway towards one of the cities on a Sunday evening. With the speedometer recording 75 and 80 miles an hour they flashed past scores of cars laden with men, women and children returning from a day at the summer resorts.

As the speeding car tore past other automobiles, some of them traveling at almost equally unreasonable speeds under such traffic conditions, the occupants turned round and waved a derisive "ha, ha", gloating in their ability to "beat the other fellow." The inevitable happened. The driver lost control, or there was a blow out and the two occupants completed their journey to the city in an ambulance, broken limbs and pain-twisted features bearing mute testimony to their agonies. The erstwhile handsome car lay partly on the highway and partly in the ditch wrecked beyond the semblance of a vehicle.

Fortunately in this particular instance the two occupants of the car were the only persons to suffer as a result of their recklessness, but for an hour or more they had jeopardized the lives and limbs of scores, perhaps hundreds of people using the highways in a legitimate and sane manner, including many women and children.

Such recklessness on the highway is nothing less than criminal and those who come to grief as a result of such misuse of the roads and motor vehicles have only themselves to blame. A worse feature, however, is the menace of such wild driving to other people. Even at moderate speeds of 35 and 40 miles-an-hour the highways are none too safe, but with speed-crazed individuals at the wheel the roads become potential and sometimes actual shambles.

While the police are on the watch for reckless fools and do all they can to protect legitimate users of the highways there are not enough of them on the job to ensure complete protection and it is doubtful if the provinces can afford to employ sufficient patrolmen to furnish immunity from all dangerous pests.

Under such circumstances the only safeguard for reasonable people is to arouse public opinion against criminals of this type to the extent that sane drivers will be willing to report them to the police and appear in court to testify against them. Such complaints, supported by adequate testimony, should inevitably result in cancellations of drivers' licenses, or at least suspension for a considerable period of time.

After all, the sensible driver, who reports the action of crazy drivers who endanger the lives of others is merely carrying out the law of self-preservation and is doing a public service in the interests of his fellow men and women. No one would hesitate to report a wild man running amuck with a knife or an axe, yet a wild man at the wheel of a powerful automobile is a much greater potential danger to the public.

No person should feel a bit squeamish about reporting dangerous violations of the laws of safety or harbor the notion that because he and his family have been safely passed it is none of his business. If two or three drivers report the recklessness of another their testimony should be ample to ensure conviction. If half a dozen or more report a case, the evidence would undoubtedly be regarded as overwhelming.

Not very long ago newspapers reported the organization of a new safety body, the Dominion Automobile Safety Council Inc., with headquarters at Montreal, coupled with the announcement that its chief function is to promote safety measures by educational means designed to cut down the motor car accident toll throughout Canada.

Such an organization can perform a very useful function to society in arousing public opinion and assist in dispelling the comparative apathy with which the general public appears to regard a very important question. The proposal that the co-operation of the driving public to report all cases of wild driving on the highways be sought, might well be recommended. Such drivers should be driven off the highways.

Not An Ordinary Search

Two Victoria horticulturists have set out on a 3,000-mile trek to look for wild flowers. But it is no ordinary wildflower that attracts Edmund H. and Joseph A. Lohrrunner to the Arctic and sub-Arctic part of the Yukon and Alaska. Rare anemone, polemonium and dwarf willows an inch in height will be sought during the summer adventure.

The discovery of the earliest known written psalm was recently announced. A cuneiform inscription of about 15 B.C. which has puzzled Syria was in reality the earliest known written psalm.

Long Service Ended

With approximately 140,000 miles behind him, travelled behind a slowly plodding horse, Henry Gingerich of Baden, Ont., has made his last trip as rural mail carrier after 16 years continuous service over a daily 28-mile route. Only twice in that time did he fail to make his round and storms were responsible both times.

Motor Roads In Britain

Increase In Traffic Is Causing Worry To Authorities

It is said that the British Isles have never been known better than they are today by more of those who inhabit them; and small wonder in view of the means of locomotion available, observes the London correspondent of the New York Sun.

Road traffic has more than doubled in five years. In Great Britain there are 178,000 miles of public highways, of which 43,000 are classified roads. The total number of vehicles using them last year was 2,981,000, as compared with only 578,700 in 1921. One person in every 19 now possesses an automobile. But there are 10,000,000 or more cyclists also using the roads.

According to Hore-Belisha, minister of transport, Britain, in the 20th century, has become the "most densely vehicled" country in the world, having 23 registered motor vehicles to the square mile as compared with seven in the United States. The increase has been so rapid, he contends, that engineers and surveyors have not been able to evolve the means of assuring the free flow of traffic in conditions of method and safety.

In the next five years $450,000,000 is to be expended on roads, and in that period it is also planned to construct 230 miles of cycle tracks and 750 miles of dual carriageways. Although increased safety for the cyclists will be assured by construction of cycle tracks such as are already widely in use on the continent, many of the cyclists resent the efforts to circumscribe their use of ordinary traffic arteries.

Japanese Zeppelin Service

Japan May Purchase Two Or More German Dirigibles

Japanese sponsors of ambitious plans for a trans-Pacific Zeppelin service found themselves faced with severe obstacles.

It was learned authoritatively, however, that the plans had not been abandoned.

High aviation sources said one group proposes three routes:

1. An airship service between Tokyo and Hainan, capital of Manchukuo.
2. An airship line connecting Tokyo with Singapore or Batavia, via Shanghai and Hong Kong.
3. An aerial route from Tokyo to San Francisco or Los Angeles, via Honolulu.

All three schemes call for purchase of two or more German Zeppelins. A German dirigible expert and air pilot called in for advice returned to Germany without, so far as could be learned, reaching any agreement with the Japanese interests. The sponsors were informed Germany could not lend Japan any of her zeppelin experts and pilots except for a very limited time.

Skeena River Floods

Church Is Wrecked But Bible Left On Table Is Undamaged

The flood waters of the Skeena river wrecked the interior of the March Memorial church at Usk, situated on the river bank, but left the Bible undamaged on a small table, it was revealed in stories brought out from the recently flooded area.

The church organ was overturned, chairs were scattered about the building and the linen cover over the table on which the Bible stood was muddy.

Another story from Usk concerns three hens that perched in high branches of a tree.

After the water dropped the hens were found under the trees where they had established a community nest in which were found four new-laid eggs.

Oriental Figure Of Speech

Story Of Jonah Is Mistaken Translation Claims Language Expert

The story of Jonah's three-day stay inside a whale arose from a mistaken translation centuries ago, according to data submitted by George M. Lamsa of Washington.

Writing in "Gospel Light," Lamsa, an expert in the Aramaic language of Bible times, said:

"According to the interpretation of dreams in the East, fish or whale means trouble, disturbance and indecision. Jonah in the whale is an Oriental hyperbole, and means Jonah is in trouble, just as an American would say, 'he is in a hole,' or 'he is out of a hole.'"

This American slang would be confusing to an Easterner, just as the term "Jonah in the Whale" would be to a Westerner, unfamiliar with Oriental speech.

Should Be Other Ways

But Increased Taxation Appears Only Remedy For Expenditures

For the current fiscal year, the Finance Minister expects a deficit of "slightly less than $100,000,000." These are astronomical figures!

Why, in 1896—only 40 years ago—the total expenditures of the Dominion Government, chargeable to consolidated fund, amounted to a "mere" $36,000,000. At the turn of the century in 1901 the figure was $46,000,000. And on the eve of the Great War, in 1913, total expenditures amounted to $112,000,000—or just an even fifty million less than last year's deficit!

Is increased taxation the only remedy?

Is there no room for greater economies in these times when every private business—every citizen—must economize?

Millions Of Words Used During Session Of Parliament

During the recent session of parliament, lasting less than five months, members of the House of Commons orated approximately 3,240,000 words while senators were comparatively reticent with little more than 500,000 words recorded by Hansard.

Special committees of the house whose proceedings were recorded used more than 3,000 pages of Hansard with something like 2,230,000 words of evidence and argument, that which investigated radio having the largest volume—about 500,000 words.

Reporting these proceedings and the general activities of the government and the members of parliament, The Canadian Press sent over its automatic printers to its members throughout the Dominion well over 600,000 words.

Probably well over 1,000,000 additional words were sent over the telegraphic wires by the score of special correspondents who are representing individual newspapers in the press gallery. The house of commons was in session 90 days.

Dame Of St. John

Lady Tweedsmuir Has Been Appointed To Order Of St. John Of Jerusalem

Lady Tweedsmuir has been appointed a dame of grace of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, the Westminster Gazette announced.

Persons admitted to this order "are such persons, being subjects of the British crown, and professing the Christian faith, as have performed or are prepared to perform good services for the order and its objects." The objects of the order are the encouragement and promotion of ambulance, hospital and other charitable work.

The order received a royal charter from Queen Victoria in 1888 as a revival of the military and religious grand priory dissolved by Queen Elizabeth in 1599. His Majesty the King is the sovereign head of the order.

Speakers Held To Time

Convention Of Health Authorities Run By Light Signals

A system of automatic lights similar to ordinary street traffic signals was used to keep speakers in order at the convention of the state and provincial health authorities of North America held recently in Vancouver.

Five minutes before the scheduled time limit of each speaker a green light flashed on the box-light apparatus set on his table. With one minute to go a yellow light appeared. When a red light came on time was up and whether or not he was finished the speaker had to sit down.

As a result of their signal system, the convention authorities were able to run their program on schedule.

Not Giving Up Flying

Hollick-Kenyon Returns To Pilot's Job After Holiday

Air Commodore Herbert Hollick-Kenyon, Antarctic flyer, isn't quitting flying for farming.

The reason he said, is that he "has to make a living." By inference he left it that his prospects of doing just that on an Okanagan fruit farm were not convincing. After a holiday with his wife and children at Ewing's Landing, B.C., he returned to Winnipeg and his pilot's job with Canadian Airways.

Star Explosion

Light Reaches Mother Earth After Journey Of 2,000 Years

Old Mother Earth watched from a big seat one of the rarest shows since the universe began—a star explosion that happened long before lehen.

The shepherds saw the star of Bethlehem off in an outer rim of space—so far that the earth and the sun are next door neighbors by comparison—the star "blew up" some 2,000 or 3,000 years ago.

Civilizations rose and fell, but even light—travelling at 186,300 miles a second—could not give the earth the news of the blast until recently.

Man had suspected for a month that something had happened out there in the Milky Way, for a scientist in Holland had reported that cosmic rays—children of disintegrating matter—had been travelling to earth in greater and greater numbers from that direction.

On the night of June 28th, an amateur astronomer at Delphos, Ohio, L. C. Peltier, peeped through his telescope and saw a bright star that wasn't there the night before.

It was so bright he could see it through the telescope. It lay on the boundary line between two constellations, Cepheus and La Ceta, which are in the northwestern sky at sunset and directly overhead in early morning.

At Yerkes observatory of the University of Chicago, Dr. Otto Struve announced the star had been on astronomer's maps since 1893 and had not gotten any brighter by 1930, when its picture was last snapped.

Yacht To Be Scuttled

Famous Cutter Britannia To Be Sunk In English Channel

The famous royal racing cutter Britannia will be spared the indignity of the shipbreakers' yard and will be scuttled in the English channel.

Official orders for the sinking of the yacht, so closely identified with the late King George, were issued recently. A month ago it was announced the sails and rigging would be sold.

The Britannia was built in 1893 for King Edward VII. when he was Prince of Wales. The famous cutter won 231 first prizes and 129 other awards in 625 races in the course of 43 years of racing.

Legend Came True

Water Filled Pool In Devonshire When King George Died

The age old legend, "And when the pool fills with water . . ." came true at North Tawton, Devonshire, when King George V. died. The legend says that when the spring-fed bath pool there fills with water, a member of the royal family will die. The spring filled just before the death of the Prince Consort, Albert, husband of Queen Victoria, and of Queen Victoria herself and the Duke of Clarence, first son of King Edward VII. Three days after King George V. lay dead, the water vanished and cattle are grazing there once more.

Bird Foretells Rain

Rafael Ruegas, Mexican consul at Tampa, Florida, has a bird that tells him when it's going to rain, but he wants to get rid of it. The bird is a Mexican road-runner. Its bones ache in damp weather, Ruegas says, causing it to utter sharp cries before and during rain storms. But the bird disturbs his sleep, he said.

QUEBEC VOTE ON AUGUST 17th

Quebec, June 27.—Premier Adélard Godbout of Quebec returned to this capital last night from a Liberal caucus in Montreal and announced to newspapermen the new date for the Quebec general election will be Monday, August 17, instead of Saturday, August 15th.

The original election date set when the government of former Premier Taschereau was dissolved, was held to be unsatisfactory because it would interfere with marketing of Quebec's produce farmers and also hinder the Jewish vote.

alarm quickly brought out a crowd who watched the fire for some time to see that no further damage was done. The stable was not in use at the time of the fire.

We are sorry to say the names of Mr. and Mrs. Reeds and Mr. Cavanaugh and family were omitted from the list of those giving flowers in the account of the late Mrs. Smart's funeral. Mr. Martin Enger was one of the pall bearers at the above funeral instead of C. E. Fenton as reported last week.

SPORTS

The meteoric rise of Don Dodge in tennis is startling. This California youth attained the Davis cup team with difficulty. Yet at Wimbledon he defeated the great Australian player, Quist, to enter the semi-finals of this world contest. At this tournament the cream of the star players of the world meet, and one has to be good to stay long. Our two Canadian players fell in the first encounter.

The manner in which the Grads swamped all opposition in the exhibition games at Regina, Ottawa and Peterborough, impressed the spectators. There was no doubt about the superiority of our local girls. If the Grads continue such mastery on their European tour, they will prove as formerly a fine advertisement for Alberta. In making a score of over 100 while the "all-star" group does 6 or 7, indicates a quality of play that is simply marvelous.

In several sport contests among European women during the past few years, some outstanding athlete performed so much like a boy that "her" status was questioned. After the week the bacon home to her country, sufficient time would be allowed to lapse before announcement was made that "By simple operation, Miss — became Mr. —." Such tricks do not sound very sportsmanlike. To ring in boys, just to win prizes in female events should be made impossible.

A year ago, Miss Redfern, a 16-year old girl of New York, could not swim over 20 yards without a rest. A couple of days ago she slipped thru the water so fast that the National title was hers. She made a mark of 1.10 for the 100 metres. The world is constantly beckoning both boys and girls who can show class in swimming and big awards are offered the speedy ones.

Germany appears very anxious to have Schelling fight Braddock in that country. But all they can say is $150,000 for the bout. Such a sum is not interesting to the New York interests. As the gate receipts will probably approach the million mark for so big a bout as this, the Germans will have to talk a lot louder to make themselves heard.

The annual contest between the American and National leagues in baseball is exciting great interest. Already the selection of players has taken place with a lot of new faces in the lineup. A great game is assured.

Alberta Government Will Issue Prosperity Bonds

Edmonton, Alta., June 29.—Everything is set for the start in issuing script and beginning the road construction work it will pay for this week. July 2 is the date set for some of the construction projects to commence, according to Hon. W. A. Fallow, minister of public works.

The government refuses to be balked in its plans, and despite strong opposition on the part of a section of the press and the financial interests, will go ahead with its plan to issue the "prosperity bonds" and carry out its scheme of road work in almost every constituency of the province. It has been said that the plan will provide work and pay for thousands of unemployed men.

W.C.T.U. MEETING

Irma W.C.T.U. held its June meeting in the United church on Friday afternoon, June 26, with 30 in attendance.

Following the routine business, Mr. Wm. Masson, M.L.A., gave a very earnest talk on the recent action of the legislature in reference to the requests of the associated temperance forces of the province.

In introducing the speaker, the chairman gave a brief outline containing some of the points covered by these requests, a few of which were as follows: That the amendment allowing beer to be purchased for the purpose of consuming it off the licensed premises be cancelled; that the reduction of penalties from $2000 to $1000 in some cases, from $1000 to $200 in others, be removed; that beer halls be required to conform to local bylaws re closing hours for business (as do stores); that all forms of liquor advertising originating in this province cease at once; that the famous petition of 1931 to which were attached 55,194 signatures be re-considered; that brewers' licenses be increased from $1500 to $2500 (with no increase of price to consumers, licenses, or the Govt.); and that temperance education be intensified in public, high and normal schools.

The speaker proved himself a loyal supporter of his government and its chief, even though his own personal vote was cast in favor of the temperance measures turned down by a majority of the members of the house. He considered the requests of the temperance forces were brought in at an inopportune moment, during the final rush, and gave it as his sincere conviction that another session would favor such action as they required.

Among other items on the program five girls, Marie Webber, Ruth Reeds, Margaret Tate, Ethel Arnold and Stella Arnold, sang a temperance song entitled "Queens." Mrs. Caprani Winkel contributed a very appreciative and sympathetic interpretation of Schubert's "Serenade." Mrs. Locke gave a beautiful rendition of a solo, "Homes there are of Want and Glory."

Snaps

THIS is the great outdoor season and that means the great snapshot season. All over Western Canada cameras are busy clicking away, recording occasions of work and play that take place in these long Summer days.

Naturally when you take a picture you take it for the purpose of preserving a memory. It is important, then, that whoever prints that picture for you prints it in such a manner as to give the most lasting and permanent impression that it is possible for you to get.

In a case like this, it pays to pay for the best. These snapshot records are important to you. Send your films, then, to EATON'S for printing. Here, expert workmen working with the finest of material, in workrooms boasting the most modern equipment, all combine to give prints that are clear, clean-cut and, above all, permanent—all at prices that are really low when you compare the quality of work turned out.

EATON'S

Girls' and Boys' Summer Camp at Vermilion Fair

The Vermilion Fair Board has again entered into an agreement with the Government of Canada to conduct a summer camp for young people, in connection with the annual fair.

The provincial government has kindly consented to the use of the beautifully situated school of agriculture buildings at Vermilion and 200 youngsters will convene on Wednesday, July 22, and remain in the camp until Saturday, July 26th. Last year the Vermilion Fair Board conducted the largest such camp in the whole Dominion of Canada and the attendance was slightly too great for ease in handling; this year the attendance will be limited to 200 girls and boys.

Provincial Government instructors will give practical courses for girls in household science subjects, while the boys will take up work having to do with agriculture, special attention being paid to livestock.

Sports directors are to be appointed and entertainment will be provided the young people while they are at the school. The first meal served in the dormitory will be supper on Wednesday, July 22nd, and the last meal served will be at noon on Saturday, the 26th. Parents, in many cases, will be attending the Fair and can thus return the children to their homes with little expense.

The cost of the entire course is $4, one dollar to be sent in with the application and the remaining $3 to be paid to the accountant at the School of Agriculture on arrival for the course.

Parents are urged to consider this reasonably priced holiday for farm girls and boys—all children will be under the supervision of Principal Elliott and his staff, and an interesting time is assured. Enquiries and applications should be addressed at once to S. C. Heckbert, Secretary, Treasurer of Vermilion Fair. It must be borne in mind that the first to apply will be accepted and not more than 200 can be accommodated. Apply at once and avoid disappointment. Vermilion Fair, July 24th and 25th.
